

The Department of Financial Services, Division of Workers' Compensation has announced the continuation of Employer Seminars regarding Workers' Compensation and Workplace Safety (presented by OSHA).

These seminars are designed to assist Florida employers in understanding their rights and responsibilities under the Florida Workers' Compensation law and in providing a Safe Workplace for their employees. The seminars are free and are offered in several locations throughout Florida.

More details are included in the Flyer and Registration forms below. This information is also available from their website:

<http://www.MyFloridaCFO.com/WC><<http://www.myfloridacfo.com/WC>>. You are welcome to disseminate the flyer and registration forms to anyone you believe may be interested in attending.

Attendance is first come first serve, however Registration for the seminar is required as there are space limitations in each of the locations. The completed registration form can be e-mailed to bocseminars@MyFloridaCFO.com; or faxed to (813) 233-2742.

<http://www.myfloridacfo.com/WC/employer/Education-Workshop-Flyer-Jan-2010.pdf>

<http://www.myfloridacfo.com/WC/employer/Registration-Form-Jan-2010.doc>